This Week's

Graduation Reviewing Officer

Depot/ERR Sergeant Major Robert Hollings

Sergeant Maj. Robert Hollings, command sergeant major, joined the Marine Corps in June 1979 and completed recruit training at Parris Island. Upon graduation of specialty school as a basic warehouseman, he served his first tour with 3rd Battalion, 4th Marines, 3rd Marine Division, Okinawa, Japan, where he was meritoriously promoted to the ranks of lance corporal and corporal. In June 1981 Hollings was reassigned to H&SBn. on Parris Island as platoon sergeant and assistant NCO in charge for the Men's Clothing Issue Section.

In July 1982 Hollings was reassigned to Marine Corps Logistics Base, Albany, Ga., as the warehouse chief and logistics chief, followed by a tour with the 1st Marine Aircraft Wing, Iwakuni, Japan, where he was assigned as the warehouse chief with Marine Wing Detachment C, Iwakuni.

Hollings was again reassigned to Parris Island in July 1984 as warehouse chief, 3rd RTBn. and returned in July 1986 to MCAS Iwakuni as the warehouse chief.

In 1987 Hollings received orders to Drill Instructor School, MCRD San Diego, and subsequently to Company D, 1st RTBn. as a drill instructor, senior drill instructor and chief drill instructor. He was meritoriously promoted to gunnery sergeant on July 2, 1990, and reassigned to the 2nd Force Service Support Group, Camp Lejeune, N.C. as the platoon sergeant, NCO in charge of 904 and company gunnery sergeant, Supply Company, 2nd Supply Battalion, where he deployed with the unit in support of Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm.

In March 1992 Hollings reported to Headquarters Marine

Corps and served as the supply monitor with MMEA. Upon promotion in January 1995, Hollings was reassigned to 3rd Maintenance Battalion, 3rd FSSG, Okinawa, in consecutive assignments as the company first sergeant with Headquarters and Service Company, 3rd Maintenance Battalion; first sergeant for MEU Service and Support Group-31, 31st Marine Expeditionary Unit; and Company First Sergeant with the General Support Maintenance Company, 3rd Maintenance Battalion.

In March 1998 Hollings was appointed as the sergeant major for 3rd Supply Bn, 3rd FSSG, and in March 1999 the first sergeant for Recruiting Station Jacksonville, Fla., until April 2002, when he assumed his duties with Marine Helicopter Squadron One, Quantico, Va.
